Dear Putnam Crew:

I am applying for the role of Cara's room/living room resident. I have been a member of households for over 25 years, and have experience ranging from storage room dweller in New Zealand to Carmel Valley Tennis Camp bunkmate. Given this background, I think I would make a strong addition to the Putnam team.

As an adept member of many households, I have a well-rounded background in sharing and general roommate behavior. One shared dwelling that particularly speaks to these skills would be my experience in the womb with my wombmate Hunter. Most children take 40 weeks to develop, but I was able to compete full development in just 8 months, with another fetus in the shared dwelling. Given these results, I was quickly promoted to firstborn daughter. My landlords would even go so far as to say they loved me. (References available upon request.) Furthermore, after consistent results leveraging synergies in shared cribs, playpens and rooms, I was promoted to favorite daughter in 2000, after the birth of the last Lowdon child. Given this track record, I know I can hit the ground running at [REDACTED]

I am confident my cohabitation skills can benefit the Putnam crew. If you require any additional information, please contact me at [REDACTED]

Sincerely,
